

GRAPE VARIETIES 2023

Variety	Seeds	Fruit & Flavor	Approximate ripening	Comments
 Boskoop Glory	Yes	Bluish-black, thin smooth skin; small/medium-sized fruit; Aromatic with sweet spicy flavor.	August/Sept	Fresh eating or juice for wine. Fruit keeps well on vine.
 Canadice	No	Red, long clusters of medium-sized fruit; Spicy grape flavor.	September	Vigorous & productive. Great table grape, jelly, juices & wine.
 Concord Seedless	No	Purple medium-sized fruit in tight clusters; Very sweet, fruity flavor.	September	Fresh eating, jams, jelly, juice & wine
 Flame	No	Red fruit in large, loose clusters; Crisp and sweet.	August	Fresh eating or dried.
 Himrod	No	Greenish-yellow; large, long, loose clusters; Crisp, sweet & juicy.	Sept/October	Fresh eating, juiced or dried.
 Interlaken	No	Golden tapering clusters w/ small to medium fruit; crisp, meaty, sweet flesh w/pleasant tangy flavor.	August	Fresh eating or dried.
 Jupiter	No	Blue large fruit in medium clusters; Crunchy; mild sweet, muscat flavor.	September	Great fresh eating.
 Lynden Blue	Yes	Very large dark blue fruit in med-large clusters; mild sweet flavor.	October	Great fresh, excellent juice. Compact vine.
 Reliance	No	Red/pink, tender skin, medium-sized clusters; Sweet, & juicy, mild fruity flavor.	August	Vigorous & productive. Fresh eating, jelly & juices.
 Siegerrebe	Some	Reddish pink fruit; large, loose clusters; low acidity; lusciously sweet.	September	Fresh eating. Originated in Germany. Makes great white wine.
 Suffolk Red	No	Red/pink, medium/large meaty fruit; Tangy, sweet, spicy flavor.	Sept/Oct	Fresh eating; Needs constant moisture and direct sun to color well.
 Swenson Red	Yes	Large red fruit; Crisp and sweet.	August/Sept	Dessert grape; Rose or white wine.
 Vanessa	No	Red, medium-sized, oblong fruit; Sweet, fruity flavor.	Sept/October	One of the best for fresh eating.

This is not a complete list of grapes in stock.

We often carry an assortment of other varieties of grape vines in small quantities as they become available.

Please feel free to come in or call to check back.